

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- Section 101. How Code Designated and Cited.
- Section 102. Catchlines of Sections.
- Section 103. Provisions Considered as Continuation of Existing Ordinances.
- Section 104. Severability of Parts of Code.
- Section 105. Effect of Repeal of Ordinances.

Section 101 How Code Designated and Cited

The Ordinances embraced in this and the following Chapters and the sections shall constitute and be designated as “The Code of the Town of Landover Hills, Maryland” and may be so cited.

Section 102 Catchlines of Sections

The catchlines of the several sections of this Code are intended as mere catchwords to indicate the contents of the sections and shall not be deemed or taken to be titles of such sections, nor as any part of such sections, nor unless expressly so provided shall they be so deemed when any of such section including the catchlines are amended or re-enacted.

Section 103 Provisions Considered as Continuation of Existing Ordinances

The provisions appearing in this Code, so far as they are the same as those Ordinances existing prior to the adoption of this Code, shall be considered as continuations thereof and not as new enactments.

Section 104 Severability of Parts of Code

It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Mayor and Town Council that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses and words of this Code be declared unconstitutional or invalid by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such constitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any of the remaining words, clauses, sentences, paragraphs and sections of this Code since the same would have been enacted by the Mayor and Town Council without the incorporation in this Code of any such unconstitutional or invalid word, clause, sentence, paragraph or section.

Section 105 Effect of Repeal or Ordinances

The repeal of an Ordinance shall not revise the application of any Ordinances in force before or at the same time the Ordinance repeal took effect. The repeal of an Ordinance shall not affect any punishment or penalty incurred before the repeal took effect, nor any suit, prosecution or proceeding pending at the time of the repeal for an offense committed under the Ordinance repeal.
